ABOUT ME!

Hello! My name is Moisés and I'm a technology and sports enthusiast. When I'm not cycling or watching a Formula 1 race, you can find me challenging my mind with a game of chess or immersed in a good movie. Recently, I discovered my passion for programming and completed a 14-week intensive bootcamp in <Academia de Código_> to become a FullStack Developer. I'm excited to start my career in IT and apply the skills I learned to create innovative and impactful solutions. If you're looking for a passionate, creative, and committed developer, I'm ready to take on new challenges and contribute to your team's success. Let's work together!
